6. Public Forum
   Susana Perez event coordinator for PBL opens an invitation to invite Senate to their barbeque this Saturday at South Gate park from 3-7.
   Suleyma Castillo on AB955 she informs Senate of this two-tiered tuition that will only affect six schools during their winter-summer terms as of now. The tuition during these terms will increase 210% to approximately $256 per unit. Students are urged to fill out a letter and sign it so AB955 will not come into effect to every campus. The letter is online; Students would print it out and turn it into the appropriate person.
   Aldo Lopez goes into more detail for AB955 and explains that those classes would be guaranteed at that price. He also discusses Senate integrity, the brown act is a very much real and discussions need to stay inside the Senate. Senators should depersonalize the issues at hand and should not degrade their title that they were elected into.
   Lance Makinano informs the Senators of the blue book and what is constitutional. Letting Senators know they’re doing the right thing.

7. Communications
   - Advisors’ Report- Dr. Beers reports that the leadership conference has been confirmed, she is also working with Executive Cabinet for the goals and objectives of this year. Advisor Amna Jara reports that homecoming elections are going on this week 9-2 and 5-8. Also to inform the student body of the homecoming game on October 26th at 7pm, in which the halftime show is the float parade and the crowning of the homecoming queen. Next week is the beginning of homecoming week activities. Tuesday you can meet the homecoming court at 11am in the student center. On Thursday there will be a mock rally. There will be a mandatory float building meeting next Thursday at 3pm in BK111/112.

Amna Jara also urges Senators not to talk bad about each other and how it reflects on you as a student leader. If you have any issues feel free to talk to the Advisors.

- Executive Report - ASCC President Juan Ramirez informs us of statistics from the coordinating committee about 10,458 students go through counseling, about 703 students are on probation due to summer grades.
