The District recognizes the responsibility of its staff to report to the appropriate agency when there is a reasonable suspicion that an abuse or neglect of a child (under the age of 18 years) may have occurred.

“Reasonable suspicion” occurs when “it is objectively reasonable for a person to entertain such a suspicion, based upon facts that could cause a reasonable person in a like position, drawing, when appropriate, on his or her training and experience, to suspect child abuse or neglect.” (Penal Code, Section 11166(a)(1))

Definition of Child Abuse or Neglect
“Child abuse” is defined as physical abuse, sexual abuse, and/or serious emotional maltreatment, as well as sexual assault, sexual exploitation, and/or the willful cruelty or unjustifiable punishment of a child; incidents of unlawful corporal punishment or injury against a child; or abuse in out-of-home care. (Penal Code, Section 11165)

“Neglect” means the negligent treatment or maltreatment of a child by a person responsible for the child’s welfare under circumstances indicating harm or threatened harm to the child’s health or welfare. It includes the negligent failure of a person having the care or custody of a child to provide adequate food, clothing, shelter, medical care, or supervision such that the child’s health is endangered. (Penal Code, Section 11165.2)

Mandated Reporters
Mandated reporters include faculty members, educational administrators, and classified staff. Volunteers are not mandated reporters but are encouraged to report suspected abuse or neglect of a child. (Penal Code, Section 11165 (b))

Reports of Child Abuse or Neglect
If a mandated reporter suspects child abuse or neglect, he or she must first make a verbal report to the Department of Children & Family Services Child Protection Hotline at 1-800-540-4000.
Mandated reporters must report immediately any reasonable suspicion of child abuse to a local child protective agency such as the Hotline and follow up with a written report within 36 hours. (Penal Code, Section 11166(a))

After a verbal report of abuse or neglect is made, the Hotline will provide mandated reporters with a 19-digit referral number which will be needed to complete the mandatory written report. This report of child abuse and/or neglect must be made on Form SS 8572; copies of this form are available in the Human Resources Office, through the Child Development Center and on the web at https://mandreptla.org/onlineRep.htm.

Once the written report of child abuse or neglect is completed, it should be mailed to the following address:

Child Protection Hotline
3075 Wilshire Boulevard, Fifth Floor
Los Angeles, CA 90010

No mandated reporter who reports a known or suspected instance of child abuse shall be civilly or criminally liable for any report required or authorized by the Penal Code.

Any person other than a child care custodian reporting a known or suspected instance of child abuse shall not incur any liability as a result of making any report of child abuse, unless it can be proven that a false report was made and the person knew that the report was false (Penal Code, Section 11172(a)).

Any person not mandated by law to report suspected child abuse has immunity unless the report is proven to be false and the person reporting knows it is false, or the report is made with reckless disregard of the truth or falsity of the incident (Penal Code, Section 11172(a)).

Reporting is an individual responsibility. An employee making a report cannot be required to disclose his or her identity to the employer.
