2016 Women’s History Celebration
Women Transforming Communities through Engagement
Invite Students to participate in

The Women’s History Celebration Book Club Series

The book clubs are student forums to discuss readings on activism and community transformation. The first twenty students to sign up for each book will receive the free book to read and discuss at three book club meetings. Please contact the faculty coordinators for your book of choice. Refer to meeting dates, times, and locations under each book title. Thank-you.
