Chinese Language & Culture Introduction

for business, travel or enrichment

For centuries Chinese language and culture have fascinated the world. Recently, China has risen as an important U.S. partner in the global village. It is essential for us to learn more about China’s language, culture and people.

You will learn:

- Words and Phrases in Chinese along with Etiquette and Culture Nuances.
- Presentations are in an everyday life setting to allow you to have a more rewarding interaction with people.
- Whether for business, travel or enrichment you can begin to use what you learn immediately.

Presenter:
Cindy Yen Chen has been teaching Chinese Language & Culture for the past 15 years at Cerritos Chinese School of the Chinese Culture Association of Southern California. Ms. Chen is the co-founder and President of Zen Continental, an international freight forwarding and shipping company with 24 offices in U.S. and in China.
