UC Berkeley Transfer Alliance Project (TAP)

- Cerritos College is a member of UC Berkeley's Transfer Alliance Project (TAP). Scholars' Honors Program students are encouraged to participate in this program at Cerritos College. Students who are interested in this program should contact the Transfer Center. NOTE: You do not have to be a member of the SHP to join Berkeley's Transfer Alliance Project.
- UC Berkeley's Transfer Alliance Project requires at least a 3.0 cumulative GPA (transfer- level courses). NOTE: The GPA range of transfer students who were admitted to UC Berkeley in Fall 2010 was between a 3.75 and a 3.8.
- UC Berkeley evaluators now consider your honors work as a factor in the admissions process. NOTE: Do not forget to mention that you are a member of the Scholars' Honors Program in your application AND personal statement.

UCLA Transfer Alliance Program (TAP)

- Priority admission consideration to the College of Letters and Science. (Impacted majors will likely require higher than a 3.3 GPA and completion of all preparation courses for the major with "A's" and "B's"). "International students are reviewed separately. They can participate in TAP and be certified. Their TAP status is considered when UCLA makes admission decisions, but international students are not considered in the same way as domestic students. Significantly fewer international students are admitted overall than domestic students."
- TAP applicants are eligible for 40+ TAP Scholarships of $5000 (renewable for one additional year)
- 12 units of honors work at Cerritos College will be accepted by the UCLA honors program (requires a 3.5 GPA)
- TAP/Transfer Conference: an organized visit to the campus to prepare students to transfer
